A Rare and Truly Lovely Celebration....

... one that we all look forward to! On January 30th, 1952, Phyllis and Larry Herchak tied the knot in Shoal Lake, Manitoba and recently celebrated their very, very special 62nd anniversary at home, here in Sonoma Pines. They first met at a sports event in Manitoba, and soon after again at a concert where Larry asked Phyllis if she would like some ice cream. That seemed to be a very intelligent move because they are still strongly bonded and still very much in love. Coincidentally, it was Larry's 23rd birthday when they got married – so if you do the math, yes, it seems like an extra 20 or so have been thrown in as they are both so active and full of energy. In their long travel history across Canada, they brought two beautiful daughters into the world, Dhana and Sheila who are both now waiting to be grandmothers too: Dhana is expecting her daughter to deliver any day now in South Korea, while Sheila is waiting for her grandchild in Whitehorse, sometime in June. We wish Phyllis, Larry and the entire family many happy, healthy returns of this celebration, and look forward to getting to know more about them in the future, as Mary will be writing up their profile in a coming issue of the Sun.
